

DOUBLE K or DOUBLE STRIKE? Rosemary Smith.

The illustration is of a 1½d EVII perfin which is an additional to a 3d rate embossed Registered Envelope dated 1908. The cover is hand stamped and 'wax-stamped' Henry S. King & Co. 65 Cornhill, London E.C. I had assumed that this was a double strike of K0010.05 (Tilles 1.5) K 10 5½mm 3mm wide.

However, I have come across a 1d lilac cover, dated 21-09-91 with hooded London postmark. The perfin is K00010.06 (Tilles 1.3) K 10 5½mm 3½mm wide. The name on the back is KING, KING & CO., BOMBAY.

Has anyone else a 'Double K' or 'Double strike of K'? Can anyone confirm that King, King & Co., Bombay had some connection with Henry S. King & Co., the Bankers.

Have you any other clues on your King covers?
